Speaker Biographies

Janet Rayfield has been the University of Illinois Head Women's Soccer Coach for 22 seasons. Her teams have had 10 NCAA Tournament appearances, 3 Round of 16 appearances and 1 Elite Eight appearance. They have earned 2 Big Ten Tournament titles and numbered 7 Big Ten Players of the Year among them. She is a US Women's National Team Olympic scout, and served as an assistant to the 2012 World Cup Champion US U20 Women's National Team. She served in 2004 as president of the National Soccer Coaches Association.

As an experienced writer, editor, strategist, facilitator, trainer and Board Certified Coach, Susan Reising, BCC "mixes and matches" her skill sets to meet clients' needs. She has worked with individuals, teams and businesses of all sizes. Over the years, her clients have included national magazines, Fortune 100 companies, small and large healthcare and educational institutions, marketing and communication agencies, and many people ready to make a change in their lives. She lives in central Illinois with her husband and two spoiled fur-kids. Besides seeing her clients shine, she loves animals of all kinds, our magnificent planet, people with big hearts, dark chocolate and a good hard laugh with friends. (And coffee – maybe a little too much, but she's working on that.)
– Keynote speaker sponsored by AETNA

Pat Schou is the executive director of the Illinois Critical Access Hospital Network, the first statewide critical access hospital network (established in 2003 and comprised of 57 CAH and small, rural hospitals) which provides a number of hospital support services and educational programs. She also manages the Medicare Rural Hospital Flexibility Grant, the Small Hospital Improvement Program, and several other grant programs on behalf of the Illinois Department of Public Health. In addition, Ms. Schou is the executive director of the Illinois Rural Community Care Organization, which is a statewide rural accountable care organization comprised of 27 critical access and small, rural hospitals. She is also the immediate past president of the National Rural Health Association.
