TIP: To join teams: You may want to login in a few minutes early just to give your laptop some time to get TEAMS loaded up. If this is your first-time using TEAMS on your laptop, it'll ask you to download the software to connect, which you can, or you can use the web browser. If you use the web browser, a popup will come up that will say, "Microsoft Teams wants to use your mic and camera." You'll want to allow this. See image below.
